

11/25/09 - Now that's Inspirational!

My son posted the link to the video below on his Facebook page.

It's worth taking 2 minutes to check out:

(the folks who compiled it are www.overthinkingit.com)

It brought a smile to my face as it brought memories to the surface of some great (and some not-so-great) movie moments.

And... it made me think about the concept of inspiration.

What makes a stirring speech stir? What is in us, that wants to be excited about something more?

Just some thoughts for the weekend.

What's your favorite inspirational movie moment ? and why?
